DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Application

[1] Claims 1-76 are pending in the application.

Election/Restrictions

- [2] Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, 12-20, 22-31, 33-47, 49-57, 59-68, 70-74, drawn to an isolated nucleic acid, a recombinant vector, a recombinant host cell, and a method for producing a polypeptide, classified in class 435, subclass 193.
 - II. Claims 11, 21, 32, 48, 58, and 69, drawn to a method for making a recombinant vector, classified in class 435, subclass 91.41.
 - III. Claims 75 and 76, drawn to a method of using a polynucleotide to detect a nucleic acid molecule, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
- [3] The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:
- The recombinant vector of Group I and the method of Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the recombinant vector of Group I can be made by chemical synthesis.
- The nucleic acid of Group I and the method of Group III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the nucleic acid of Group I can be used for protein expression.
- [6] The methods of Groups II-III are independent as they comprise different steps and yield different results.

- [7] MPEP § 803 sets forth two criteria for a proper restriction between patentably distinct inventions:
- (A) The inventions must be independent or distinct as claimed and (B) There must be a serious burden on the examiner. As shown above, each of the inventions of Groups I-III are independent or distinct, thus satisfying the first criterion for a proper restriction. MPEP § 803 additionally states that a serious burden on the examiner may be prima facie shown if the examiner shows by appropriate explanation either separate classification, separate status in the art, or a different field of search. Each of the inventions has a separate classification and requires a separate patent and non-patent literature search requiring a different text search for each Group and thus, co-examination of the inventions of Groups I-III would be a serious burden on the examiner.
- [8] Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
- [9] Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
